FRIDAY NIGHT

Normal Friday Night Fun – Braai & Laughter around the fire. Jokes were flying around & messing around with other camper's braai meat. Chatted to the early hours of the morning.

SATURDAY

Saturday was a rainy day on & off.

Most of us played board games & the rest relaxed after a long week.

Some went on romantic walks. It was also Brett's birthday, our Valentines baby.

That afternoon we watched cricket with some permanent campers at Yellows.

Started the fire, it's always fun making a fire in the rain.

We all chatted around the fire & started to braai our meat.

Jokes are the norm at the fire.

Swimming in the rain was a must.

The wheels fell off a bit, but fun was had by all.

SUNDAY

Sunday indaba & then started packing up after a fun weekend with our camping family.
